With damn cursed eyes, the multitude sat

C G Am

As the kettle cars pulled along the rusty tracks

C G Am

One raised his hat in the fading light

C C/B G Am

Said excuse me sir, this doesn't seem right

Chorus :

Am G D Am
 Now he's gone like whispers, gone like rain
 G D Am
 Gone like the faithful while the faithless remain
 G D C
 Gone like the stone the builder refused
 C/B Am
 Gone and overdue

Am C G Am
 There s a river in Texas with a strong undertow
C G Am
 No one crosses it to freedom, no one pans for gold
C G Am
 Its waters are clear, its waters are cold
C C/B G Am
 Its current is swift and no one knows where it goes, it s just

Chorus

C C/B Am
Gone and overdue

Am C G Am
In a cold desert corner, don t appear on no map
 C G Am
Coyotes scream rips the night in half
 C G Am
He hears the devil calling, footsteps on the path
 C C/B G Am
So he chews off his own leg, to get out of the trap, and he s

Chorus

C C/B Am
Gone and overdue, hey hey hey
