F#m A
Me and Javier shouted slogans in Spanish
E F#m
Like it was our world to win
A
Then they move a plant down Ojada
E F#m
Time to bite your tongue again

Chorus:

D F#m
I ve seen the fabled city
E F#m
It s streets are paved with gold
D F#m
But an iron fence round it
A A/G# F#m
It s iron gate is closed

F#m |
F#m E F#m A | x2

F#m A
What ain t right ain t right he told me
E F#m
But something else passed behind his eyes
F#m A
No he s downtown on his knees washing floors for somebody
E F#m
And quietly biding his time

Chorus:

D F#m
I ve seen the fabled city
E F#m
It s streets are paved with gold

D F#m
 But an iron fence round it
E C#
 It s iron gate is closed Hey

F#m A
 The gas station on Sunset and Crescent
E F#m
 I met an angel sad and old
 She lived in the alley behind the market
E F#m
 In the shadows may be hidden from the lord
D F#m
 And for a dime she sang a song
E F#m
 Sounded more like a prayer
D F#m
 A wish that her dead mother and father
E F#m
 Couldn t look down and see her there

Chorus:

D F#m
 I ve seen the fabled city
E F#m
 It s streets are paved with gold
D F#m
 But an iron fence round it
A A/G# F#m
 It s iron gate is closed

F#m |
F#m E F#m A | x2

D F#m
 On a wire outside my window
E F#m
 There sit one hundred swallows
D F#m
 And I suspect that if one flew
A F#m
 Then ninety nine would follow
