Verse 1

A E A E D
Like mist or a daydream, made of substance  can you feel it?  

A E A E
D

Buildings brown (of in a gray downtown)  in the twilight  can you see it?  

A E A E D
A E D
Photographs,  Typographs  in the papers did you read it?  

E
Stop and blink  just what words you think,  In the meantime does it matter much at all?  

E A E A E

Denmark came and Denmark marked my soul

E A E A

Denmark came and Denmark marked myâ€|

Verse 2

A E A E D
Songs for a real crowd in a cafe  full of listeners  

A E A
E D

Know your tongue  and they know your man  in the crowd now did you see her?  

A E A E D
Airplanes, window panes  misting of the viewpoint  

E

Stop and blink  as I pause to think, I wonder would I miss her much at all? 

E A E A E

Denmark came and Denmark marked my soul
