The Ocean Blue

New York 6AM
By: The Ocean Blue

Guitar riff: A7

A7 A
The early morning light, sweeps the street clean

A7 A
Sound collect and rise, in tower canyons

G A/D

New York 6am

A7 A
Evening revelries are safely sleeping

A7 A
Melted all away, a whisper fading

G A/D

New York 6am (2X)

A7 A
Do you see the sunrise? On the eastern skyline?

A7 A G A/D
Do you feel the sunrise? Do you feel the morning light?

G A7 D
Ahh, Ahh, Ahh

D A7
And if you know the way out

A G
Why do you always want to stay?

D A7
And if you love the country

A G
Why does it rub you the wrong way

G A7 D
Ahh, Ahh, Ahh (2X)

A7 A
The weepy evening light, lays its head down

A7 A
Cabs go drifting by in yellow waves

A7 A
No more misery, your eyes are singing

A7 A
No more misery the sun has set til

G A/D

New York 6am (2X)

G            A7            D

Ahh, Ahh, Ahh (4X)
