Riff 2 -- This is played after the first chorus Play it fast, it s hard to tell the first part of it, but even if you ca play it, mess around in an E blues scale, and it ll sound fine.

Riff 3 -- This is played after the second chorus
This is all I could make of it, you ll have to play it at lightning spee and even then it sounds wrong. At least it doesn t last very long :)

Riff 4 -- This is played after the bridge, it s kinda cool, just bend th lower string up to the point where it matches the pitch of the upper str
