The better angels of our nature

Well, they ve gone away to hide
Brutality I can t unsee
These pictures are just burned into my mind
It s commotion in slow motion
It s humanity denied
A violent race, punch in the face
With all this hate how can we all survive?

And if a change is coming
What makes it take so long?
And if a change is coming
Why sing the same old song?

This is not utopia
The roots, the roots, the roots of America
Are the roots, the roots, the roots of hysteria
The roots, the roots, the rules don t matter anymore?

This is not utopia
The roots, the roots, the roots of America
Are the roots, the roots, the roots of hysteria
And you, and you, and you don t matter anymore

This is not utopia
The roots, the roots, the roots of America
Are the roots, the roots, the roots of hysteria
And you, and you, and you don t matter anymore

This is not utopia
