

Turning Into You
The Offspring

Verse 1:

Cm
A day to remember
Ab
The echoes and embers
Bb
Are heavy on my mind
Cm
The pictures are broken,
Ab
The front door is open
Bb
The scars are left behind

Cm
Tables turn
Ab
Your words they re burning
Bb
Leaving me undone
Cm
I flinch and shake until I break
Ab
I swear to God for once!
Bb                      Ab
Could you just hear me?
                         Bb
Just really hear me..?

Chorus:

Cm                                      Bb
I ve been drowning in the sea
                                         Cm
I ve tried to please you
                                         Bb
It s all I ll ever be
                                         Cm
It s all I ever knew
                         Bb                                      Ab                                      Bb
I try to be me, but I m turning into you

Verse 2: (like verse 1)
The music is hurting,

The drugs aren't working
The walls come crushing down
Another rejection
For my insurrection
It's crawling back somehow

Tables turn
These words they burn
I never should have come
I flinch and shake until I break
I swear to God for once
Could you just hear me?
No, really hear me?

Cm Bb
I've been drowning in the sea
Cm
I've tried to please you
Bb
It's all I'll ever be
Cm
It's all I ever knew
Bb Ab
I try to be me, but I'm turning into you
Cm
Turning into you

Bb
I'm not how I used to be,
Cm
I'm changing cause of you
Bb
I'm screaming just to breathe
Cm
It's all that I can do
Bb Ab Bb
I try to be me, but I'm turning into you
Cm
Turning into you

Ab Cm
Any more, find a way, hey, hey
Ab Cm Bb
Any more, find a way to there

Cm Bb
It's all that I can see
Cm
It's all that I can do
Bb
I try to be me, but I'm turning into -
