E A x8

I feel loose and contented

Like to go where I want, when I can

If I set too much, my thoughts begin to rush

And nothin is clear that I hear

I guess I m a mover

Just travelin through my life to somewhere

But it feels so good to take a second look

Following the way that I feel

No my love ain t dead it just got to my head

And I need a little space to feel free

While following the way that I feel

While I m following

Following the way that I feel

While I m following

Following the way that I feel

[Solo]
