

Probably Always Will
The Ozark Mountain Daredevils

OZARK MOUNTAIN DAREDEVILS

(GUITAR INTRO)

[C] I ve got a mountain of dreams to [F] climb fore I [C] get to that house on the [F] hill that [C] keeps the lady of my [F] morning in a [C] brown earthen pot on the [F] sill of the [Em] window that [Dm] looks out [G] across the valley, [C] probably always will C F G C

[C] I ll make sure no one is [F] watching me like [C] ev ry good and successful [F] thief and [C] maybe tomorrow when the [F] sun goes down Ill have [C] put an end to this [F] grief by [Em] giving myself a [Dm] potted plant and A [G] rainbow, calling it A [C] wreath C F G C

[G] she s the energy that [C] runs my day and the [G] first star out at [C] night [F] by God, I m gonna [C] climb that hill if it [G] takes, ev ry bit of my my [C] might in the [C] morning the early summer [F] breezes call me [C] away from my warm sleeping [F] bed and [C] fill me up with expect [F] ations of [C] filling this hole in my [F] head that was left [Em] long [Dm] ago Somewhere in my [G] lifetime, left me feeling [C] dead F G C

[G] she s the energy that runs my [C] day [G] and the first star out at [C] night [F] by God, I m gonna [C] climb that hill if it [G] takes, ev ry bit of my [C] might [C] I ve got a mountain of [F] dreams to climb fore I [C] get to that house on the [F] hill

that [C] keeps the lady of my [F] morning
in a [C] brown earthen pot on the [F] sill
of the [Em] window that [Dm] looks out across the [G] valley, probably always [C] will F G C
