G D
Tomorrow you my be preachin high on a hill
G D
And some people that come to see you may feel a thrill
A
Everybody s gawking at you
G D
Some are even laughing at you again
G D G D G D
But they never thought they d see you again
G D
Nearly a hundred summers have faded away
G
Since the fool and the schemer
D
The old drunken dreamer were saved
Villages are filled with stories
G D
Of each and every one of your glories again
G
But they never thought they d see you
A
No, they never thought they d see you
G D G D
Never thought they d see you again
Maybe you re an actor acting
G D G G G D G G G D
Maybe you re a faker taking again
A
Maybe I m a true believer
G D
Or maybe just a lover leavin a friend
G
But I never thought I d see you
A
No, I never thought I d see you
G D Em9 G X 3 D
Never thought I d see you again
