D G*
Come on now stop staring at the ceiling

D G*
Your last daydream is slowly unreeling

D G*
Won't you come out tonight, like I know you want to

D G*
cuz the city's alive and even though it haunts you, I want you

A
To tell me again what the body's for

Em7
cuz I can't feel it anymore

G
I want to hurt like it did before

D
We shouldn't sin

A
Tell me again what the body's for

Em7
cuz I can't feel it anymore

G
I lost mine and I need yours,

D A D
It's only skin, we could swim

D G

D G*
You try so hard to keep it together,

D G*
and you look so hard in fishnets and leather

D G*
But I know who you are, you are just a lost saint

D

G***

And if we go too far, there ll be heaven to pay and what a price

A

To tell me again what the body s for

Em7

cuz I can t feel it anymore

G

I want to hurt like it did before

D

We shouldn t sin

A

Tell me again what the body s for

Em7

cuz I can t feel it anymore

G

I lost mine and I need yours,
