As a similar substituted intro I slide from the 9th fret on D-string down to Em and then do it again to D. This goes for the break towards the end and the fade out at the end.

Em
I looked through your room
D
And I saw where you lay
Em
As the light shone through it
D
Through a lead lamp shade
Em
And I looked for a clue
D
And for some remains
Em
And the dust blew through it
D
And the words just came

C
Keep an eye on me
D
Keep an eye on
C
Keep an eye on me
D
Keep an eye on

Em D
I hear it calling
C D
Standing over
Em C
Listen closer

Keep an eye on me

D

Keep an eye on

C

Wait for me

D

Wait for me

C

Wait for me

D

Wait for me
