As a similar substituted intro I slide from the 9th fret on D-string down to Em and then do it again to D. This goes for the break towards the end and the fade out at the end.

Em

I looked through your room

D

And I saw where you lay

Em

As the light shone through it

D

Through a lead lamp shade

Em

And I looked for a clue

D

And for some remains

Em

And the dust blew through it

D

And the words just came

C

Keep an eye on me

D

Keep an eye on

C

Keep an eye on me

D

Keep an eye on

Em D

I hear it calling

C D

Standing over

Em C

Listen closer

G Em D
I know now

Em
I tap to a tune
D
And my thoughts would stray
Em
Your voice rang through it
D
And the ground would sway

Em
The blinds would slap at your window at night
D
Jump the fence and down under the wire
Em
I'd follow you're steps as you'd slip from my sight
D
I'm always afraid you'd leave me behind

C
Just Keep your mind on me
D
Keep your mind on
Just Keep your mind on me
D
Keep your mind on

Em D
I hear it calling
C D
Standing over
Em C
Listen closer
G Em D
I know now

Am
I'll make it worth it if you wait for me
Am
I'll make it worth it if you wait for me
Am
As God my witness there for all to see

C
Keep an eye on me
D
Keep an eye on
C

Keep an eye on me

D

Keep an eye on

C

Wait for me

D

Wait for me

C

Wait for me

D

Wait for me
