Verse 1:

E F#m D
You were young, but your eyes were younger still

E A
When you found me there.

E F#m D
And you rode down the street to watch me work

E A
Building tables and chairs.

E F#m D
You wore white, we were married in July

E A
In a church on a hill.

E F#m D
And I cried cos you looked just like the winter

E A
Dressed in the light.

Chorus:

D A
Where do I go?

D A E
What do I know now?

A D E A
With my sweet love gone, with my sweet love gone

Verse 2:

With my hands oh I worked the night and day

And I built you a home
And we raised our own children in those walls
Now they re happy and gone
And our yard it was colourful with flowers
That scented the air
And I watched as they slowly died away
When you needed me there

Chorus 2:

Who do I be?
What do I see now?
With my sweet love gone, with my sweet love gone

Verse 3:

You grew old so much faster than I could
And I knew you would go
Laid to rest on a Sunday afternoon
And you left me alone

Final Chorus

How do I live?
What do I give now?
With me sweet love gone, with my sweet love gone
