Intro: D/F#

G

I put your records on

D/F#

To see if you would sing my name

G

I put your records on

D/F#

To see if you might feel the same

G

It was a tragedy

D/F#

About the end of all the world

G

You took the saddest part

D/F#

And gave it to another girl

G

A

It s funny how it all works out in the end

D/F#

G

Though it was the same from start to fin

D/F#

But it s never too late to begin

G, D/F#

So I put your records on

To see if I would hear my name

I put your records on

And wonder if you do the same

It d be a tragedy

For anyone that was your girl

Because the saddest part is

You want the love of all the world

G

A

It s funny how it all works out in the end

D/F#

G

Though it was a shame from start to fin

D/F# A

But it s never too late to begin

G, D/F#

Hm, Hm Hm Hm...

G A

It s funny how it all works out in the end

D/F# G

Though it was the same as it s always been

D/F# A

But it s never too late to begin

G

So I put your records on

D/F#

I put your records on

G

I put your records on

D/F# A

I put your records on, your records on

G D/F#

I put your records on
