G D G
Medidebating at a fireside in this beautiful land of Aus,
C G C G
Could heaven be a better place than home well supposin that it was.
C G
If heaven is in some future with a tomorrow so unclear.
D G
Then home for me I guess could better be, nowhere else but here.

G C G
Nowhere else but here- ooh yeah, nowhere else but here-ooh no
D G Riff 1
Home for me I guess might never be nowhere else but here

G D G
If daunted by the many many times things don t turn out as planned
C G C G
Or haunted by the feeling of that unfamiliar hand
C G
Just listen to little honeysuckle singing sweet and clear

The sweetest honey is in the tree that s nowhere else but here

Nowhere else but here she sings, nowhere else but here

Here s where my honey is in this tree that s nowhere else but here

Is there much that might not happen right wherever I may be

If all I gotta do is soften some of my precious certainties

Was all that toil and turmoil, just to help me understand

That heaven maybe just a fancy name for some never, never ever land

Where nothing ever really happens and probably just as well

Ive seen things really happening where it s all downhill to hell

Through a devil s pass on a bolting horse, with Buckley s hope to steer

Where we could regret we never ever cared to be nowhere else but here

Nowhere else but here ahhhhh nowhere else but here....

[No lyrics in this line]

Now I m dreaming by this campfire gleaming in this dear old land of Aus,

Flippin idly through the pages of the tales of the never was

Losing interest in a future what with tomorrow so unclear

I guess maybe I ll never really need to be nowhere else but here

Nowhere else but here - oh no, nowhere else but here - for sure

Guess maybe I may never ever need to be nowhere else but here

Nowhere else but here - oh no, nowhere else but here - for sure

Guess maybe I may never ever need to be nowhere else but here

G D G
If there is one place we re all free to be, its nowhere else but here.
