D

November s here it s the time of the year when the heat waves are starting to dance.

Mercury rising, millibars falling, no time for a shaky romance

Am G D

Sweat on the foreheads of babies, drifting in dreamland

G I

While into the pindan* those old men are pounding a raindance

D G D G

Ngaba, ngaba

D

Anticipation, gunada waving goodbye to hot hungry days

Pressure down in King Sound, drifting across Roebuck Bay

Am G D

See the lightning bolt, hear the thunder roll, she s a coming

Am G D

While into the pindan those children are dancing a raindance

D G D G Drums Kick in

Ngaba, ngaba

Am G D Am G D

N-ga-ba, n-ga-ba

Am G D

Willy willy, going silly only the rainman can see m G

That eastern horizon bringing that ngaba to me

Am G D Am G D

N-ga-ba, n-ga-ba

Am G D

Saturation, gunada waving goodbye to hot hungry days

Am G D

Old dogs and children dancing those heat blues away

Am G D Am G D

N-ga-ba, n-ga-ba

Am G D Am G D

N-ga-ba, n-ga-ba

RAINDANCING, RAINDANCING

RAINDANCING, RAINDANCING

Notes:

- * Pindan means semi-arid country, scrubland.
-  Ngaba means water
