Volcano
The Presidents of the United States of America

hi guys, i was surprised there was a chord tab for this but i think ive got it pretty accurately, although the ending/outro is a little off, please rate and put any corrections at the bottom! listen to the song to get the idea for the strumming pattern!

(any chords marked with a * play as an E-shaped barre chord)

Intro: E A | D G | E A | D E x2

E | E | E | E (strum once) N.C

Verse
E   A   C#m
  Under the island, middle of a mountain
          E   A
There is a big bad, boomin system
       C#m   E
Blowin speakers, woofers and tweeters
     A   C#m
Amplifiers, melted wires
            E   A
The parties exploded, the core is corroded
      C#m   E
Under ground, the Puget Sound
       A   C#m
Cause a shiftin , and a driftin
           E   A
A big black boom box, stuck in the hot rock
            C#m   E
It s in there flowin , it s in there growin
         A   C#m
You don t believe me, that this scenery
          E
Could be a, cold blooded killer!

              A#                Dm
That sulfur smell is, Mt St Helens

Pompeii was yellin !!
G*                              A#*   N.C       A#* | F A#
  It s gonna blow, woah-woah-woah, Volcano!
G*                              A#*   N.C       A#* | F A#
  It s gonna blow, woah-woah-woah, Volcano!
G*                              A#*   N.C       A#* | F A#
  It s gonna blow, woah-woah-woah, Volcano!
G*                              A#*   N.C
  It s gonna blow, woah-woah-woah, Volcano!!

 GO!

F A# | D# G# | F A# | D# F | x2

(faster strumming)

F A# D# F x4

F (N.C) | F    |

Thats it, you dont have to play the * chords as barre you can play them as open chords but i think it sounds better, please let me know any correcttions! cheers guys :D
