

Hymn To Her
The Pretenders

D
Let me inside you
G
Into your room
Bm
I ve heard it s lined
G D
With the things you don t show.

D
Lay me beside you
G
Down on the Floor
Bm
I ve been your lover
G D
From the womb to the tomb
G Bm
I dress as your daughter
G D
When the moon becomes round
G Bm
You be my mother
G D
When everything s gone

D F#m G
And she will always carry on
D
Something is lost
A
But something is found
D F#m G
They will keep on speaking her name
D
Some things change
A
Some stay the same

D
Keep backoning to me
G
From behind that close door
Bm G
The maid and the mother
G D
And the crone that s grown old

D
I hear you voice
G
Coming out of that hole
G Bm
I listen to you
G D
And I want some more
G Bm
I listen to you
G D
And I want some more

D F#m G
And she will always carry on
D
Something is lost
A
But something is found
D F#m G
They will keep on speaking her name
D
Some things change
A
Some stay the same

D
Let me inside you
G
Into your room
Bm
I ve heard it s lined
G D
With the things you don t show.

D
Lay me beside you
G
Down on the Floor
Bm
I ve been your lover
G D
From the womb to the tomb
G Bm
I dress as your daughter
G D
When the moon becomes round
G Bm
You be my mother
G D
When everything s gone

D F#m G

And she will always carry on

D

Something is lost

A

But something is found

D F#m

G

They will keep on speaking her name

D

Some things change

A

Some stay the same
