

Sense Of Purpose
The Pretenders

G
Everybody chokes
                  C                                  D                                  G          C          D

When they see someone cut down in their prime

G
It may not show when you look at me

C          D                                  G          C          D
But I know I m in mine

G
I m potent baby I m potent
C                                  D          G          C          D

Dangerous to the naked eye

G
Rest your head on this bed of mother s pride

C          D                  G          C          D
And find out why

C                                  D
Don t you wanna take me home?

C                                  D
Don t you wanna take me home?

G
Give me a sense of purpose e-chords.com

C                                  D          G
A real sense of purpose now

G
Give me a sense of purpose

C                                  D          G
A real sense of purpose now

G
Bully boys don t bother me
C                  D                                  G          C          D

I purse my lips and they run away

G
Guys like you who are gentle and true
C                  D                                  G          C          D

Don t come around here everyday

G
I m potent baby I m potent
C                                  D                                  G          C          D

Just one swing of me would get most guys smashed

G                                  C
But a drop of yours makes me stagger and swerve

D                  G                                  C          D
I guess I m outclassed

G
Everybody chokes
                  C                                  D                                  G                  C          D
When they see someone cut down in their prime

G
Take this plea to your heart
C D                  G          C          D
- Lift me in mine

C                                  D
Don t you wanna take me home?
C                                  D
Don t you wanna take me home?

G
Give me a sense of purpose
          C                                  D          G
A real sense of purpose now

G
Give me a sense of purpose
          C                                  D          G
A real sense of purpose now

G
Give me a sense of purpose
          C                                  D          G
A real sense of purpose now

G
Give me a sense of purpose
          C                                  D          G
A real sense of purpose now