

Lady Luck
The Proclaimers

C Em
I got some bills this morning they tumbled through the door
F G
I counted every penny but the bills still came to more
C Em
And written in the paper for Pisces it did say
F G
If you would just be bolder then this could be your day

C C7 F Fm C
It said Lady Luck apologizes, for the way she s been behaving
Cmaj7 G G7
but she promises she ll change
C C7 F
If you don t wanna know her she ll understand,
Fm C G C
but if you d like to take her hand, she will be back at your command

C Em
So I ran round the corner, the bookies there I entered
F G
Put ten quid on a mare from a stud in Kildare
C Em
And though the jockey beat her, in Belgium they will eat her
F G
The tannoy began to rip as I tore up the slip

C C7 F Fm C
It said Lady Luck apologizes, for the way she s been behaving
Cmaj7 G G7
but she promises she ll change
C C7 F
If you don t wanna know her she ll understand,
Fm C G C
but if you d like to take her hand, she will be back at your command

C Em
I met a girl this evening and I began to think
F G
That I might get her drunk but she matched me drink for drink
C Em
So when she drew the curtains, I felt success was certain
F G
But as she kicked me out, she spoke in the third person

C C7 F Fm C
She said Lady Luck apologizes, for the way she s been behaving

Cmaj7 G G7

but she promises she ll change

C C7 F

If you don t wanna know her she ll understand,

Fm C G C

but if you d like to take her hand, she will be back at your command

C C7 F Fm C
