

Blue Veins
The Raconteurs

Album: Broken Boy Soldiers
Year: 2006

The closest I ever got to the true spirit of the blues, raw human emotion, is through song. I saw them live at Leeds festival and when they played this I slipped into a trance. was one of the best moments of my life; the song seemed to stretch on for eternity and I one with the band and everyone else in the crowd. This song is the most perfect record ever.

NOTE: The only chord played throughout this song is Dm on the fifth; piano and the two fill everything else.

INTRO: (Random stuff played backwards till 0:38)
