The Raging Nathans

[Verse 1]
A E F#         F#
    I used to know a guy
A E F#          B          F#
    But then he changed his name
A E F#         F#
    He used to be my friend
A E F#            B         F#
    But now he s not the same

[Chorus]
B                 A                           F#
It s a sign of the times, It s the way of the world
                    A
That beats you down each day
B                 A                    D
It s the conquer/divide, it s the blatant lies
                        E D C
That makes a good man change

[Bridge]
F#          D        A        B
I used to know a guy, until he took the bait
F#          D        A           C#
Bought into all the lies, his heart is filled with hate
F#          D        A        B
I took a different path, we went our separate ways
F#          D        A
Now it s too little too late

[Verse 2]
A E F#         F#
    I used to know a guy
A E F#         B     F#
    He used to be my friend
A E F#              F#
    But things are different now
A E F#            F#
    And this is how it ends

[Chorus]
B                 A                           F#
It s a sign of the times, It s the way of the world
                     A
That beats you down each day
B                 A                    D
It s the conquer/divide, it s the blatant lies

                    E D C#
That makes a good man change

[Bridge]
F#          D        A          B
I used to know a guy, until he took the bait
F#          D        A          C#
Bought into all the lies, his heart is filled with hate
F#          D        A          B
I took a different path, we went our separate ways
F#          D        A
Now it s too little too late
it s too little too late
A          A G# G F# F#
it s too little too late
