

Dayton
The Raging Nathans

[Intro]

A E A E
A E A E

[Verse 1]

A
Sometimes you feel like you re living at work
F# E A
I don t know if it will be cold tomorrow

A
Maybe it will and maybe it won t
F# E A
Because you never really know in Ohio

[Chorus]

A E F# D
And I just want to tell you I m sorry
C# D E
But your cell is on the fritz so you won t answer your phone
A E F# D
And I just want to tell you that I love you
C# D E
But you don t want to hear it so I guess I m all alone tonight

[Interlude]

A E A E

[Verse 2]

A
Feeling alone when you get back home
N.C.
Because your friends are right where you left them
N.C.
And you can t relate to their everyday

F# E A
And their stories about home, they mean nothinig

[Chorus]

A E F# D
And I just want to tell you I m sorry
C# D E
But your cell is on the fritz so you won t answer your phone
A E F# D
And I just want to tell you that I love you
C# D E A A G#
But you don t want to hear it so I guess I m all alone tonight

[Bridge]

F# D A A G#
When you re sick and you re tired of being on the road
F# D A G#
And all that you want to do is come home
F# D F#
When you feel like there s nothing left
D
And you feel like you ve given your best
F# D E
Got 30 minutes a night where you don t feel alone

[Break]

A G# F# E D E
And I don t know where I ll be tomorrow
A G# F# E D E
And I wish I was back in Chicago
A E D
Because they say that this city s a graveyard
A E D
Yeah they say that this city s a graveyard
A E D
They say that this city s a graveyard
A E D
Yeah we ve buried ourselves in a graveyard

[Outro]

A E A E
A E A E A