

Lust

The Raveonettes

G# B
I fell out of heaven
C# E
to be with you in hell
G# B
my sin s not quite seven
C# E
nothing much to tell

lust I haven t craved a sainted boy I m not I take it to my grave
a side cursed on rot

I ride these ropes alone beneath the sulfur sky
everywhere I roam
life is one big lie

when the fireball goes down out by LA waste
I come into town
but only for a day

if starving in bed means I pray for you to understand the man sure is sleek
but lost was my hand

I struggle and I cry
I pounce with no revenge at least I never lied or took the truth to rail
