We had the world sitting right in front of us

C

and we would take my car and drive into the dark,

D

but we never would get too far, cos with my luck we d probably end up lost!

G

I was a storm cloud filled up with rain,

Em

you were the sunlight creeping right into my veins.

C

With that you lift me up and I never could act too tough

D

cos you d accept my faults, I was illuminated by your love

G

Em

Summer always shines like gold-

And winter never feels too cold.

D

I m thinking that we wont grow old because we got each other now.

G

Love crazy love crazy love

Em

the only kind I ve ever known

C

I m not the type to take it slow

D

baby we wrote the book on American American

G

Love crazy love crazy love

Em

cos we don t have to be alone
