Well I had a feeling when I wrote this song

F#

Out on the porch after the rain

B

E

F#

And the feeling went something like this

E

Well I let the cat in through the gate

F#

And I let the phone ring off the hook

E

F#

And I felt the cool air on my skin

F#

E

Well I was fish without a fish bowl

F#

E

And I was monkey out of my cage

F#

E

And I was banker out of money

But I wouldn't change a thing

And the feeling went something like this

E

The mud was drying on the ground

F#

And the bugs was crawling all around

B

And the feeling went something like this

B E
Well I let the cat in through the gate
F#

And I let the phone ring off the hook

B E
And the dog was busy chewing up the things
F#

I'd spent so long acquiring

F# E
Well I was fish without a fish bowl

F# E
And I was monkey out of my cage

F# E
And I was banker out of money

F# E
And I was book without a page

F# E
Well I was serf without a surf board

F# E
And I was a chief without a head dress

F# E
And I was a mirror without Othello

F# E
A machine without a rage

B E F#

And I wouldn't change a thing

B E F#

I wouldn't change a thing

B E F#

Well I wouldn't change a thing

A

Wouldn't change a thing

B

Oh no, Oh yeah.
