

One Man Parade
The Reign of Kindo

Hey guys this is not 100% I don't think but it's close enough to do a solid cover.

Tuning: E Standard

Intro: C#m, Abm, B
F#m, A, E

C#m Abm B
Leaving this town like a one man parade
F#m A E
Headed straight for the pacific blue
C#m Abm B
It seems all that i love has been left far behind
F#m A E
All the hundreds of days without you

C#m Abm
But it won't be long before
 B E
You grow lonely, lonely
C#m Abm B E
Long before you grow lonely again
 C#m Abm
I'll be singin' this song
 B E
To remind me about you
C#m Abm B E
Singin' this song so i never forget

(The rest is the same, just play the intro chords over again and repeat the chords for the verse and chorus)

Page after page I keep writing these words
Tryin' to sum up my life to a tune
There's no rhyme for my reason and no such demand
For my mind was made up rather soon

But it won't be long before
I grow lonely, lonely
Long before i grow lonely again

I ll be singin this song
To remind me about you
Singin this song so i never forget
