The Replacements

This was posted last week by Francois Rousseau. Merci Beaucoup!!

It s not as easy as it seems. Try harmonizing when on A with A-C#/A-AMaj7-C#/A ... then on D with D-F#/D-DMaj7-F#/D...

If you have long fingers then try running up the frets to get firs at the base A, then the C# (third finger, 4th fret) then then the Ab at the 6th fret with the pinky (good excercise). Same for D but on the next string.

If you can t, then play the chords as written up there.

It may have (must have) lyric errors, I m french speaking news user, bye.
