Toerag The Rifles

Toerag The Rifles

New track from the forthcoming second album. Lyrics pieced together from various live with sometimes dodgy sound quality, hence some mistakes. Cheers, Garry Lever.

Right from my eyes, runs a tear on my cheek. Bm Don't want to be heard, so I can't get the blame. Bm Can't hear no words, I would say its gonna rain.

D

Get the queue for the bus, and then I join the line. D Same faces for the last 10 years of my life. Bm See I'm bored of my friends, I couldn't tell you their names. Bm Shattered glass on the floor, kids are running again.

D

One hour passes till I'm back on my feet, D A stones throw and I'll be walking till I'm off of the street. Bm Hang my coat up to dry, settle down with the herd. Bm Some I really don't mind, some just get on my nerves.

D

Turn my back to the clock because it slows the time, D Take out a cigarette and hear the match strike. Bm Turn the radio on to drown the sound of the rain. Bm Same bands, same songs play again and again.

D Bm And I don't see how its ever gonna change

From my days at work I move away in a haste. D Times never slower then when she's running away. Bm Pass a girl from my school but conversations brief, Bm Gotta catch that train get myself some relief. D I meet up with friends and then I'm off at six. D Up and in at five I walk around for a bit. Bm Grab up all of my change and move an empty glass Bm Herds through that door, glad I won't be the last. D See I just act quiet so you'll think I'm thick D Said the same last night and we were getting on it. BmFind a closing door and stumble out in the rain, Bm I look up to the sky and watch it start to sleep. D Bm And I don't see how its ever gonna change G Α Bm G Bm Tell me Iâ $\in$ <sup>m</sup>m alright, say what you like from miles away. Е А And expect nothing changes except for the name of the day. D Bm And I don't see how its ever gonna change And I don't see how its ever gonna change And I don't see how its ever gonna change And I don't see how its ever gonna change D Turn back up my road and make my way up the street. Lines scream in my ear as I walk this beat. Bm Fall into my door, I fumble round for my key. Bm D

Creap back into bed and then I pull up my sheet. D High over my head and uncover my feet. Bm
Till the world goes dark and I'm miles away.
Bm
Jump to the alarm to start another day.
