The Roches

[Intro]

C F G
C F G

[Verse]

C F C
Oh, once I loved an outlaw
G
He came and stole my heart
C F C
Oh, how I count the hours
F G
Since we were torn apart

[Verse]

C F C
On the road to Fairfax county
F G
I spied a highwayman
C F C
He wanted all my money
F G
My heart beat like a drum

[Verse]

C F C
I gave him all my money
G
And sweet he smiled at me
C F C
His beauty eye took pity
F G
Beneath the old oak tree

[Verse]

C F C
We kissed but for an hour
F G
The sun was newly warm
C F C
The clouds were as the flowers
F G
That bloom but for a morn

[Verse]

C F C
He gave back all my money

G

And bowed most gallantly

C F C

He promised for to meet me

F G

That night beneath the tree

[Verse]

C F C

We d flee to some far island

F G

And there we would be wed

C F C

And freely we would live there

F G

With no price upon his head

[Verse]

C F C

That night I went to meet him

G

With my inheritance

C F C

He kissed me neath the half moon

F G

And joyful we did dance

[Verse]

C F C

Oh, love betrays all secrets

F G

It whispers in the breeze

C F C

The sheriff he did follow

F G

With all his deputies

[Verse]

C F C

Like hounds rushing to slaughter

G

The fox whose luck is run

C F C

And he stood erect and cursed them

F G

God damn you every one

[Verse]

C F C

They seized him in a fury

F G

And heeding not my plea

C F C

They hung him from the oak tree

F

G

Where he made love to me
