

Goodbye Waves Driveaways
The Rocket Summer

Maybe these aren't right, but they work for me!

A C# D
Just walk away

D E
Gather your thoughts for the second wave

A C# D
Of this argument on this epic changing day

It's crazy to think that an hour ago all things were great

A C# D
But we stand here both proud both wrong and right

D E D
Throwing cheap shots in this stubborn fight

A C# D
And our lives are so intertwined in one

D E D
But we're just so stuck in this moment it's clear that we're coming undone

A C# D
And you see it's hard for me to breathe

A C# D
When I get all worked up with these feelings

A C# D
And I don't know exactly how it is

D E D
That we can be so mad we consider to not exist

D E G
When we both know there's so much love clenched within our fists

A C# D
The goodbye waves in the driveway they just resonate

And yes I am throwing it right back at her

A C#
While we're drowning in rivers from our faces

A C# D
We just wanna know if, this is this over

E D
A trembling silence fills the air

D G
As we stand here so impaired, so aware

A
I sit in this house

C# D

Alone with fresh photographs

D E D

And I just can't relax

A C# D

And like cigarette smoke, I'm starting to choke on this

D E G

That half of my soul is on the road in a car with a girl in a dress

A C# D

And it's making it hard for me to breathe

A C# D

When I get all worked up with these feelings

A C# D

And I don't know exactly how it is

A C# D

That just to say I'm right your wrong we both lose to win

A C# D

The goodbye waves in the driveway they just resonate

D E D

And yes I am throwing it right back at her

A C#

While were drowning in rivers from our faces

A C# D

We just wanna know if, this is this over

E D

A trembling silence fills the air

D G

As we stand here, woah

A

So hey now, maybe we re just being stupid

C#

Maybe we re just being dumb

D

Hey maybe it s time that we stopped and we realized

E D

Like a flag in the wind we are one

A

And how at first it's made so pure and lovely

C#

But in battle can be torn to shreds

D

But with time and with patience and love and affection

E D

Can be fixed with needle and thread

A C#

Because I love you and do you love me

D G

And nothing will make this leave

A C#

I said I love you and do you love me

D

G

And nothing will make, make, make, make this leave

D E

So remember me, yeah!

D E

Remember me, yeah!

D E

Remember me

A C# D

And don't walk away...
