Blue Turns To Grey
The Rolling Stones

```
C#
So now that she is gone
F#                    C#
You won t be sad for long
F#                 C#          G#/B      Bbm
For maybe just an hour or just a moment
F#       G#
Of the day

                     C#
Then blue turns to grey
F#              C#
And try as you may
F#                C#
You just don t feel good
F#                C#
You don t feel alright
F#                           G#
And you know that you must find her, find her, find her
C#
You think you ll have a ball
F#                    C#
And you won t care at all
F#                     C#        G#/B      Bbm
You ll find another girl or maybe more
    F#         G#
To pass the time away
                      C#
Then blue turns to grey
F#              C#
And try as you may
F#                 C#
You just don t feel good
F#                 C#
You just don t feel alright
F#                            G#
And you know that you must find her, find her, find her
C#
She s not home when you call
F#              C#
So you can go to all
F#                   C#        G#/B
The places where she used to go
     Bbm      F#   G#
But she has gone away
                     C#
Then blue turns to grey
F#                  C#
```

And try as you may
F#   C#
You just don t feel good
F#   C#
You don t feel alright
F#   G#
And you know that you must find her, find her, find her
C#   F#
Blue turns to grey (blue turns to grey)
        C#   F#
She has gone away (blue turns to grey)
      C#   F#
I feel so bad (blue turns to grey)
            C#   F#
I wish you d come on home (blue turns to grey)
            C#   F# C#   F#C
I feel, I feel so down...
