F Bb
I m sittin in a bar tippling a jar in Jackson
F G C
And on the street the summer sun it shines
F Bb
There s many a bar-room queen I ve had in Jackson
F C F
But I just can t seem to drink you off my mind

C F
It s the honky tonk women
C F
Gimme, gimme, gimme the honky tonk blues

Bb
I laid a divorcee in New York City
F G C
I had to put up some kind of a fight
F Bb
The lady she all dressed me up in roses
F C F
She blew my nose and then she blew my mind

(Fiddle solo, play verse chords here)

C F
It s the honky tonk women
