

Dreamy skies
The Rolling Stones

Intr x4: D C G

D C G
Well, I got to take a break from it all

D C G
Cause the wind and the wilderness calls

D C G
And I just need some peace from the stars

D C G
I got to take a break from it all

D C G
And I got to take a break for a while

D C G
Where there ain't another human for a hundred miles

D C G
I hate being enclosed by the walls

D C G
And I've got to take a break from it all

D C
I'll be dancing on diamonds, I'll be skating on vans

D C
I'll be chopping up wood, I'll be splitting the hands

D C
An old damn radio is all that I've got

D C
It just plays Hank Williams and some bad honky-tonk

D C G
Cause I got to take a break from it all

Instrumental x2

D C G

D C G

D C G
I've got to break away from it all

D C G
From the city and the suburbs and sprawl

D C G
And the small town chatter and the no-dogs

D C
To a place where no one can call

D C
And I won't hear th? sirens or the maddening crowd

D C
Just th? bark of a fox and the hoot of an owl

D C
Ain't got no connections or a satellite phone

D C
I'm avoiding the pictures and the people back home

D C G
And I ve just got to break free from it all

Em C
You see, they can t last forever, I ll be diving back in

Em G
It s good for my soul, yes, it s saving my skin

Em C
Cause I love the laughter, the women, the wine

Em D C
I ve just got to break free from it all

Instrumental x4

D C G

D C G
And I m weary of the grey of the trail

D C G
I ain t gonna post and I ain t gonna mail

D C G
I just need some peace from the storm

D C G
I ve got to break away from it all

D C G
And I ve got to break away from it all

D C G
And I ve got to break away from it all

D C G
To a place where no one can call

D C G
And I ve got to break away from it all
