

Going Home
The Rolling Stones

GOING HOME

The Rolling Stones
Album : Aftermath, 1966

Verse 1:

E A E
Spending too much time away

E A E
I can t stand another day

E A E
Maybe you think I ve seen the world

E A E
But I d rather see my girl

CHORUS :

I m going home, I m going home, I m going home, I m going home,
I m going home, bown bown bown bown Ba Ba bown bown bown back home !

Verse 2:

E A E
All those letters everyday

E A E
Maybe allright in their way

E A E
But I d love to see your face

E A E
When I get home in their place

CHORUS

Solo on verse s chords

CHORUS

Verse 3:

E A E
When you re thousands miles away
E A E
I just never sleep the same
E A E
If I pack my things right now
E A E
I d be home in sevens hours

CHORUS

E

Yes I will, Yes I will, I wanna see my girl..... I just can t wait, etc

Comments by salmon philippe (tab writer):

This song should previously last about 3 minutes, but in the studio, when the end of song came, they kept on playing and made an improvised jam session during 8 more minutes...

for a total song lasting 11 min 17 sec (unbielivable in that time)

Here is the 3 minutes song, for the jam, listen to the reccord....