

Honky Tonk Women
The Rolling Stones

B E
1. I met a gin soaked barroom queen in Memphis,
B F#
she tried to take me upstairs for a ride.
B E
She had to heave me right across her shoulder,
B F# B
cause I just can't seem to drink you off my mind.
F# B

It's the Honky Tonk Women,
F# B
give me, give me, give me the honky tonk blues.

B E
2. Strollin' on the boulevards of Paris,
B F#
as naked as the day that I will die.
B E
The sailors they're so charming there in Paris,
B F# B
but they just don't seem to sail you off my mind.

3. I laid a divorcee in New York City,
B F#
I had to put up some kind of a fight.
B E
The lady she all dressed me up in roses,
B F# B
she blew my nose and then she blew my mind.
