

Honky Tonk Women
The Rolling Stones

D G
1. I met a gin soaked barroom queen in Memphis,
D A
she tried to take me upstairs for a ride.
D G
She had to heave me right across her shoulder,
D A D
cause I just can't seem to drink you off my mind.
A D

It's the Honky Tonk Women,
A D
give me, give me, give me the honky tonk blues.

2. Strollin' on the boulevards of Paris,
D A
as naked as the day that I will die.
D G
The sailors they're so charming there in Paris,
D A D
but they just don't seem to sail you off my mind.

3. I laid a divorcee in New York City,
D A
I had to put up some kind of a fight.
D G
The lady she all dressed me up in roses,
D A D
she blew my nose and then she blew my mind.
