

Indian Girl
The Rolling Stones

(intro 2x) Bb Eb

(verse)

Bb Eb
little indian girl, where is your mama?
Bb Eb
little indian girl, where is your papa?
Bb Eb
he s fighting in the war in the streets of masaya
F Eb
all the children were dead
F Eb
except for the girl who said
Bb Eb
please mister gringo, please find my father F Eb F Eb
lesson number one better learn while you re young Bb Eb
life just goes on and on getting harder and harder Bb Eb Bb Eb
little indian girl, from nueva, granada

(verse)

Bb Eb
ma says there s no food, there s nothing left in the larder
Bb Eb
last piece of meat was eaten by the soldiers that raped her F Eb F Eb
lesson number one that you learn when you re young Bb Eb
life just goes on and on getting harder and harder
Bb Eb
life just goes on and on getting harder and harder
Bb Eb
little indian girls from nueva, granada
Bb Eb
little indian girls from nueva, granada
F Eb
yes, i saw them today
F Eb
it s a sight i would say Bb
they re shooting down planes
Eb
with their m-16 and with laughter

(verse)

(spoken)

Bb

Eb

mr. gringo, my father he ain t no che guevara

Bb

Eb

and he s fighting a war on the streets of masaya

Bb

Eb

little indian girl where is your father?

Bb

Eb

indian girl where is your momma?

Bb

Eb

they re fighting for mr. castro in the streets of angola

Bb

Eb

Bb

la la la la la la