A little clock keep away the time
                C#

A little clock keep away the time

Well, a little rain keep a-fallin
                        G#
On this little love of mine

Little flowers open

Little birds keep a-singin tune

A little flower open
A little birds keep-a singin tune
