D                    A
Take me to the station
D                    A
And put me on a train
D                    A
I ve got no expectations
G                    D            A
To pass through here again

D                    A
Once I was a rich man
D                    A
Now I am so poor
D                    A
But never in my sweet short life
G                    D            A
Have I felt like this before

D                    A
Your heart is like a diamond
D                    A
You throw your pearls at swine
D                    A

And as I watch you leaving me
G            D            A
You pack my piece of mind

D                            A
Our love was like the water
D                            A
That splashes on a stone
D                            A
Our love is like our music
G            D            A
It s here, and then it s gone

D                            A
So take me to the airport
D                            A
And put me on a plane
D                            A
I got no expectations
          G            D            A
To pass through here again
