No Use In Crying
The Rolling Stones

```
    INTRO:      D   E -- 4x s
                /   /
```

```
        E                   D
     Ain t no use in crying
                      A     D E
     Stay away from me
        E                   D
     Ain t no use in crying
                       A     D E
     Stay away from me
        E                   D
     Ain t no use in crying
                     A     D E
     Stay away from me
```

```
VERSE:
      D                   E
       Standing in the kitchen
      D                         E
       Looking way out cross the fields
      D                       E
       You see a face in the window
                D             E
       It s not real, it s not real
```

```
                        D
     Ain t no use in crying
                   A           D E
     Stay away from me, stay away
                         D          A   D E
     Ain t no use, ain t no use, ain t no use
                        D               A     D  E
     Ain t no use, ain t no use, stay away from me, stay away
                       D               A     D  E
     Ain t no use in crying stay away from me, stay away
```

```
VERSE:
        Standing at the station
        Gazing down the track
        There ain t no train coming baby
        I ain t never, never coming back

VERSE:

        Standing in the balcony
        Looking way out towards the sea
        If you see your ship come a sailing
        It s not me, it s not me
        It s not me (it s not me, it s not me, it s not me)
        Stay away from me
        Hey you, you, you, you, you

Chorus:
        Ain t no use, ain t no use
        Stay away from me
        Ain t no use in crying
        Stay away from me

OUTRO:    D  E -- 4x s

        any questions, corrections or comments e-mail me at:
                  [email protected]
```