Stealing My Heart
The Rolling Stones
Intro: D Bm F# G (3x) D A
Verse 1:
    D
                         Α
Well luck is expensive and freedom comes cheap
    D
                         Α
When love s on the menu, I don t drink so deep
    Bm
               G
                           D
                                        Α
Well I was just out there to have me some fun
                        D A
        Bm
              G
But it s easier said than done
                         G
D Bm
                    F#
                                D Bm
Mmm... we re standing so far apart
       F#
                       G
We had a string of false starts
 D
              Bm
I can t seem to stop it now
  F#
                           D
It grows and it grows and it grows
Chorus:
           Α
Stealing my heart,
           D
stealing my heart,
           Α
stealing my heart
       DA
Yeah
Verse 2:
  D
                                 А
My cards are on the table, you can look up my sleeves
   D
                        Α
You say you re honest but love is for thieves
    Bm
                        D
                                     Α
Well I was just out there, chaste as a nun
       Bm G D A
But it s easier said than done
