Torn And Frayed  The Rolling Stones

Intro: D A E D

A $\quad \mathbf{G}$
D

Hey let him follow you down,
A E
D

Way underground wind and he s bound.
A G
D
Bound to follow you down,
D

Just a dead beat right off the street.
A G
D
Bound to follow you down.
A
G
D

Well the ballrooms and smelly bordellos
A
D

And dressing rooms filled with parasites.
A
G
D

On stage the band has got problems,
A D A

They re a bag of nerves on first nights.
D $\quad \mathbf{A} \quad \mathbf{E} \quad$ D

He ain $t$ tied down to no home town,
A
G
D

Yeah, and he thought he was wreckless.
A $\quad \mathbf{E}$
D

You think he s bad, he thinks you re mad,
A
D
Yeah, and the guitar player gets restless.
A G D
And his coat is torn and frayed,
$\mathbf{A} \quad \mathbf{G} \quad \mathbf{D}$
It $s$ seen much better days.
A G D
Just as long as the guitar plays
D
A

Let it steal your heart away,
A D A ADADAEDAGDAEDAGD
Let it steal your heart away.
D A E D Joe s got a cough, sounds kind a rough,
A G
D

Yeah, and the codeine to fix it.
E
D

Doctor prescribes, drug store supplies,
A
G
D

Who s gonna help him to kick it
A
D

Well his coat is torn and frayed,
A
G D

It`s seen much better days.
