What if I m only satisfied when I m at home

Hey, tonight
Sink your heart into mine
I will never try
As you forget your northern lights

Hey, tonight
Sync your heart beat to mine
I will never try
To forget your northern lights

Gone away again
From this Alberta pen
And I will never try
To forget your northern eyes

Run away again
From this Alberta pen

And I will never try
To forget your northern eyes

Meet me there again
Under the lights at the ledge
And we will burn our eyes
Seeking out these purple nights

Meet me there again
Under the lights at the ledge
And we will burn our eyes
Seeking out these purple nights
