

Exhilarating Sadness

The Saw Doctors

```
#-----PLEASE NOTE-----#
#This file is the author s own work and represents their interpretation of the # #song. You may only use this file for private study, scholarship, or research. #
#-----#
#
#
```

Date: Mon, 12 Aug 1996 21:01:24 +0000
 From: Edward A Doyle
 Subject: Here is a song by the Saw Doctors called exhilarating sadness

Exilarating Sadness
 SawDoctors

>From Eddie@scruffys.demon.co.uk

the very basic riff goes like g-7-7-7-42-4-24-4-4-67-7-6-4-2--|
 b-----| e-----|

G C
 You were sitting in a cafe
Am D
 at a table by the juke-box
G C Am
 Making cups of coffee last for years
G C
 You never heard the fanfare
Am D
 never saw the sunshine rising C Am
 and the summer slipped in unnoticed
D
 from beneath your tears

The following verses are played the same as the first,

The pounding big bass rhythm shook the room, shook your little heart all the talk that whistled through your ears
 You were minding your own buisness but you were everybody elses
 and the summer slipped in unnoticed

from beneath your tears

All the girls around you were captured by your presence your lucid features admired and revered Deep in your eyes I recognise exhilarating sadness
And the summer slipped in unnoticed
from beneath your tears

This mid section goes as follows

C

Time flew bye

D

You moved on

C

D

The shop street days are long since gone

C

All of the laughter

D

and all of the tears

C

Am

D

I still see your likeness through the years