and never again

hear the song end

F#m

E

of the ocean

The trip is long but you will prosper

you re not alone, boy

you have a father

and there s a lesson

they have given

and underwater

I can listen

And I know all whales can sing

There is enough for

when you come down

Into the water

you will hide out

for the changing

of what is sacred

Oh to the father

the hope that he will read it

And I know all whales can sing

Cut all this out

We shall not be

turning lightly

into the wind

and never again

hear the song end

of the ocean

I know all whales can sing

And I know all whales can sing!
