

Soot And Stars
The Smashing Pumpkins

Song: Soot + Stars

Tuning: Standard

Notes on the Tab:

*For the sake of time, I didn't really label the chords and just named them by the base, in the diagrams, that is how I play them, and they are always played in that order.

*The notes in (x) are ones that I decide to play on whims to mix it up a little since it's a long song.

*Obviously this is a much simplified way of playing the song, and even more so, it is my own way of playing the song, so change the chord fingerings and plunkings to whatever you want.

**This song is meant for a piano, yet this tab is for a guitar.

**This tab is really just because I like playing the song, yet can't play piano.

Listening to the song should help you get the strumming.
