SHEILA TAKE A BOW by The Smiths, from Louder Than Bombs .

B

E D A
Is it wrong to want to live on your own?

E A C#m
No, it s not wrong - but I must know

E D A
How can someone so young

E A B
Sing words so sad?

E D F#m
Sheila take a, Sheila take a bow

Boot the grime of this world in the crotch dear

D F#m
And don t go home tonight

C D E C
Come out and find the one that you love and who loves you

D E B
The one that you love and who loves you, oh

E D A
Is it wrong not to always be glad

E A C#m
No, it s not wrong - but I must add

E D A

How can someone so young

E      A                      B

Sing words so sad?

E                      D                      F#m

Sheila take a, Sheila take a bow

C                                      D                                      E
Boot the grime of this world in the crotch dear

D                      F#m
And don t go home tonight

C                                      D                                      E                      C
Come out and find the one that you love and who loves you

D                                      E                      B
The one that you love and who loves you, oh

E                      D                      F#m
Take my hand and off we stride

C                      D                      E
Oh la la la la la la la la la

D                      F#m
You re a girl and I m a boy

C                      D                      E                      C
La la la la la la la la la

D                      E
La la la la la la la

E                      D                      F#m
Take my hand and off we stride

C                      D                      E
Oh la la la la la la la la la

D                      F#m
I m a girl and you re a boy

C                      D                      E                      C
La la la la la la la la la

La la la la la la la

D                      F#m
Sheila take a, Sheila take bow

C        D            E
La la la la la la la la

D                    F#m
Throw your homework onto the fire

C                    D                    E   C
Come out and find the one that you love

D                    Em7
Come out and find the one that you love
