

Still Ill
The Smiths

[Intro] G

Am F G
I degree today that life is simply taking and not giving
Am F G
England is mine and it owes me a living
Am F G
But ask me why and i ll spit in your eye
Am F G
Oh ask me why and i ll spit in your eye
Em Am F G
But we cannot cling to the old dreams anymore
Em Am F G
No we cannot cling to those dreams

Am F
Does the body rule mind?
G
Or does the mind rule the body?
Am F G
I dunno

Am F G
Under the iron bridge we kissed
Am F G
And although i ended up with sore lips
Em Am F G
It just wasnt like the old days anymore
Em Am F
No it wasnt like those days
G Am F G
Am i still ill?

(Am F G)

Am F
Does the body rule the mind
G
Or does the mind rule the body?

Am F G
I dunno
Am F G
Ask me why and I ll die
Am F G
Oh ask me why and I ll die
Em Am F G

And if you must go to work tomorrow

Em Am F G

Well if I were you I wouldn't bother

Am F G

For there are brighter sides to life

And I should know because I've seen them

Am F G

But not very often

Am F G

Under the iron bridge we kissed

Am F G

And although it ended up with sore lips

Em Am F G

It just wasn't like the old days anymore

Em Am F

No it wasn't like those days

G Am F G

Am I still ill?

(Am F G)
